“ Dear Uncle Bob, Mike and Kathy, I just came across the obituary for Auntie Elizabeth. I believe that the last time I saw her was in 1968 in the Hudson Bay in Calgary. I have fond memories of her when I was growing up in Medicine Hat. I remember family visits when you lived in Medicine Hat and then Walsh! I am so sorry for your loss. Norma K. Sullivan

“ To all of you, our deepest condolences, I will always remember the days at the ranch - I will always remember (as a young child) Liz on the piano singing "I'm Going to Wash That Man Right out of my Hair" and "Once there was a Silly Old Ant" (which has become one of my granddaughters favorites and always makes me think of Liz). Her wonderful laugh, the visits to our shop in Qualicum Beach.

Cherish your memories - may they help to get you through the days ahead. Our thoughts are with you all.
