“ Pat, Barry, Heather, Shelley, Michelle and extended family

I was very sorry to hear about Jim's passing. He was such a help when I started working on the Hannah family history. From his emails, I could tell how much he loved Pat and his children. Even though he was already experiencing the effects of the ALS, he was an immense source of information and help to me. There was also the sense of humor that was deep within him. He is now an angel in heaven looking down on all of us, free from pain and suffering, probably playing a prank or two or a round of golf. His memories will last forever so celebrate his life as he would want you to. Know that our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Heather, Michelle, Shelley, and Barry,

Such wonderful memories I have of your dad! From the crazy car horn (we'd hear him coming home at the end of the work day from miles away) to the wonky nicknames (if I recall correctly we were the 'Magilicutties' and a certain member of your family was 'boogie'). Your dad always seemed to be trying to make us laugh. Such a great sense of humour.

Lots of love to all of you and your mom at this time.

“ Hello to you all who knew Jim,

My most sincere condolences to you all. I wrote a limerick in celebration of Jim's spirit

*Looking at Jim, one could not help but see his smile shine,
So much so that within seconds the grin became mine,
Oh and then there's the Hannaheese,
It took me years to realize it wasn't Chinese!
Luckily there's Barry whose making it's being passed down the blood line!*

*From Montreal, Tristan, Sacha and I send you all a great big hug.
We are with you in spirit.*

“ Dear Hannah Family,
My sincere sympathy to you with the loss of your dear Jim. He was a very special person to us all. I will miss his good humor and quick wit. I got to know Jim working at the hospital second floor dining room. He was always on dish patrol and he always had excuses why he couldn't do them that day. I always bugged him and he bugged me right back. Meals on second will never be the same again. He will be missed.

Thinking of you during this difficult time.

Sincerely,

*Lorna Hanson High River, AB

“ Blessings to Pat, to Jim's family and to Jim who is walking through the beautiful fields of heaven and no doubt doing some Sudoku as well with the angels. I will miss you Jim, you were one of the bravest men I knew in the face of your disease and I will miss seeing you and Pat celebrating Date Night at the hospital . Love Lou Ross-Johns
