

Mrs. Molly Shirley Elaine Baron

November 11, 1947 - December 12, 2025

Molly Shirley Elaine Baron (née Pipella), age 78, passed away peacefully in her home in High River, Alberta, on Friday, December 12, 2025. Born on November 11, 1947, in Calgary, Alberta, Molly lived a life defined by love, compassion, and quiet strength.

She is survived by her loving husband, John Baron; her son, Matthew Baron; her sister, Georgina Skebo (née Pipella), and brother-in-law Ron Skebo; and her nephew Stephen Skebo, and nieces Veronica Skebo and Samantha Skebo.

Molly worked for many years at Eaton's, later at Cohos, Evamy and Partners, and within the oil and gas industry, before devoting herself fully to the role she cherished most—being a stay-at-home mother to her son, Matthew. Her dedication to her family was unwavering, and she gave selflessly of her time, care, and love.

Deeply committed to her community, Molly was a generous supporter of local organizations, including the Bow Valley Music Club, Alderwood Community Association and the Millarville Musical Ride, among others. She believed strongly in giving back and quietly contributed her time, encouragement, and support wherever it was needed.

Known for her gentle nature and compassionate heart, Molly was a constant source of comfort and support to those around her. She had a deep love for animals, especially her cats and horses, and found great joy in caring for them. Her kindness extended beyond her family to friends, neighbors, and the wider community she so deeply cared for.

Molly will be remembered as a loving and caring mother and aunt, whose warmth, patience, generosity, and community spirit left a lasting impression on everyone she touched.

A Celebration of Life will be announced at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Molly's memory may be made to Pound Rescue in Okotoks, a cause close to her heart.

Caring for the family is Lyle Reeves Funerals of High River (403.652.4242).
