

Mrs. Myrtle Milliken

March 5, 1930 - December 21, 2012

Myrtle Jane Milliken passed away peacefully on December 21, 2012 at the High River Hospital in High River, Alberta.

Myrt is survived by her daughter April Miller; son William (Darlene) Lothian; grandchildren Brandy-Anne Miller, Daniel (Anne-Marie Rochford) Lothian, Jennifer (Darrell) Janzen; great-grandchildren Austin, Caleb, Emily, Maggie, Evangeline and brother-in-law Marvin Lohse. She was predeceased by her infant son Raymond; parents Alvin and Lily Godkin and siblings Wilbur Godkin and Dorothy Lohse.

Myrt was born on March 5, 1930 on a farm near Milo, Alberta and attended school in Cluny and worked after school in Calgary. She married Gordon Lothian in 1951, and April was born a couple of years later. From Calgary they moved to Lacombe where Bill was born. In 1956 they moved to the Milo district and soon after Myrt and Gordon divorced. She then moved to Queenstown becoming post master in 1959. She married Walter Milliken and they moved to Milo where she ran the post office until she retired in 1992. In 1998 she then moved to High River, Alberta.

A Memorial Service was held on Friday, December 28th at 1:30 p.m. at the Salvation Army Foothills Church (117 – 2nd Ave. SE, High River). To send condolences and view Myrt's Tribute Page please visit www.lylereeves.com .

“ Sending our sincere condolences to Myrtle's family. Our memories of Myrtle go way back to the Queenstown days. Since that time, I have visited with Myrtle occasionally when she came into Bob Roddie's office, which is where I work. It was very nice to re-connect with her after so many years. Thinking of you at this sad time. Norma Blake (nee Brown) ”
