

Mrs. Patricia Elizabeth Davis

December 3, 1942 - December 11, 2020

Mrs. Patricia Davis (nee: Lane) of Calgary, Alberta passed away unexpectedly at the Foothills Hospital in Calgary on December 11, 2020 at the age of 78 years. Patricia is survived by her older brother George Lane; twin brother Thomas Lane; daughters Rachelle Davis (Tim Lamarsh) and Angela Davis (Jim Constable); grandchildren Constance, Amiee, Elizabeth, Jennifer, William and Nicholas; great-grandchildren Taylor, Kirsten, Kiera, Keigan, Kai, Danika, Dayden, Bostonn and Lokie.

Born in 1942, Patricia was the granddaughter of George E. Lane co-founder of the Calgary Exhibition and Stampede. She began a humble career at T.D. Bank and then went onto 25 years at Foremost Industries as one of the first computer programmers and operator before retiring.

Patricia will be laid to rest on the Lane family plots at the Highwood Cemetery in High River in the spring of 2021.

Caring for the family is Lyle Reeves Funerals of High River (Craig Snodgrass)

“ Hi Rachelle and Angela, I was looking everywhere to find your Mom's e-mail address to wish her 80th Happy Birthday as we celebrated together for many years at Foremost between Bruce, your Mom and I as we were all born in 1942 within a month, she was always happy to claim of being the youngest! I am very sorry to hear that she passed away in 2020, I didn't know. She was always so proud of you two and she loved you and talked a lot about you. I am sure she is missed. Take care you two.
