

Mrs. Patricia Irene Scharf

May 9, 1932 - September 28, 2023

It is with sadness that we announce the passing of our mother, Mrs. Patricia Irene Scharf of Cayley, Alberta, on September 28th, 2023, at the age of 91 years.

Patricia was predeceased by her husband, Reynold Scharf, and her eldest son, Mark Abrams.

She is survived by her son Gary Abrams, his wife Kelley, and granddaughters Kori and Lindsey, from Pleasant Grove, PEI, and her son Paul Abrams and his wife Jasmine, of High River, Alberta.

Patricia was born on May 9, 1932 in Galt, Ontario. She spent her early years in southern Ontario and the Ottawa Valley before moving to Cayley, AB with her husband Reynold in 1990.

Pat was a woman of many interests, chief among them were her much loved dogs. She spent many enjoyable hours in the company of her furry friends. She was also a voracious reader. At the time of her passing her home probably contained enough books to stock a small library.

Finally, Mom loved the mountains. She never tired of watching them through her kitchen window, and loved nothing better than a drive up into 'her mountains' on a sunny day.

Many thanks to Dr. Jensen for his years of care of Mom, and to Doug Wallace at Studio D for the countless enjoyable conversations she had with him, Friday mornings in his salon.

Pat's Celebration of Life will be a private family affair.

Caring for the family is Lyle Reeves Funerals of High River (Craig Snodgrass) 403.652.4242.

“ Pat and I shared a friendship that went back many years, much of it by long distance phone calls that often were very lengthy. We had so much in common, and I will truly miss hearing Pat's voice again. R.I.P. my friend.
My condolences to Paul and Gary.
