Frank, we will miss Pauleen sooo much! Our over the fence yacks and coffee and cigarettes on your back deck with her, swapping jokes and our mutual flood woes will be missed! It has been so wonderful having another former rancher as a neighbor, as we just 'understand' each other and look out for each other here in town now! Steve and I will miss her quick wit and fire cracker jokes 🎆❤️. We will be here for you and Justin at a heartbeat's notice, if you need anything we are here for you both! We love you and your whole wonderful family ❤️ Pauleen will live on in our hearts forever ❤️. Steve & Jocelyn Dade & Family (next door)

Pauline was a wonderful lady with a wonderful ability to make anyone laugh with her jokes. She had a great sense of humor, wonderful laugh and beautiful smile. She was another mom when you needed one. It was great to see her and Frank at Lestock's reunion.

Rest in peace beautiful Pauline, you will be dearly missed.

“ Brian and I send our condolences to all of the family. Auntie Pauline was an amazing person and she loved to have fun with us (Smotra) kids. I recall a few times she let us get away with some "bad" things at family get-together when our parents were not watching us. We will all miss her. I hope the memories will help all the family fmemories get through this sad time.
