Thinking of you all today and the days to come. Phyllis was such a lovely lady, and great neighbor as we were growing up, never afraid to give my sister and I trouble when she would see us scraping in the back yard or see laundry flying out the backdoor, she would always get a good laugh about it. She will be missed.

“ Dear Greg, Tyler, Brady, Shirley, Deb, Dale, Carla and families. It is with a sense of disbelief that I am writing this, so hard to believe that she is gone. She as such a presence in all of our lives. Working beside Phyllis at the Royal Bank when she was just out of school and years later working 20 years together at Sunshine Gas. We shared a lot of laughs, a few tears and a great friendship. Her work ethics and integrity were first rate. It was such a pleasure to go to work and be greeted by that gorgeous smile and "how are ya doing?". Rest well, my friend. You will be missed by all that knew you.

“ Phyllis was truly one of those rare gems that you felt lucky to meet. Heart of gold and the courage to stand up for what she believed in....and what a great laugh! I don't think Art has ever had a peach without telling me that "Phyllis always peeled them for me".

Greg, Tyler, and Brady, and families, we are thinking of you!

“ My darling Phyllis: I know this page is meant for your family but I have a need to write to you. As I sit here in tears and disbelief so many memories come flooding back, we were neighbors and friends for more years than I can count. We made countless trips to any bingo hall we could find, there were times years ago when you had doctor's or dentists appts. and you asked me to take you and of course they were always early in the morning, that always made you laugh because I'm not very sociable or friendly in the morning :) The many shopping trips we made together were always fun. When I was having personal problems in the old days I didn't just turn to a friend, I turned to you, a real true and loving friend and you were always there for me! My funniest memory was when you used to laugh at me bragging about my four grandchildren, well it wasn't long and in a very short time you decided to outdo me and have five:). Then it was my turn to laugh and tease you and I did it as often as I could! Oh how you adored them! I have pictures when you came to our farm with the kids and we were all jumping on the trampoline and having a wonderful time, lots of laughs and giggles.

Although we took different paths in life the last few years as friends sometimes do , the love and respect we had for each never waivered even though we didn't spend much time together. I was hoping you'd be strong enough to fight this last round but sadly it wasn't meant to be, you were just too tired and God saw that. He had one empty spot left in his beautiful garden and chose you as the most beautiful flower he could fill with it! Sleep now my friend, you so deserve it. We will miss you more than you'll ever know but I know you are watching us, your friends and especially your beloved family, none of us were ready to lose you. I pray God gives everyone the strength to get through your loss, your memory and strength will live on forever through your husband, children and especially your beloved grandchildren. The last words I said to you a couple of weeks ago were I love you and I'm so glad I had that chance. You left a mark on my heart that will never be forgotten.

Greg and family. My condolences to you.
