

Mrs. Phyllis Hunter

January 1, 2022

Blessed with a long and fulfilling life, Phyllis passed away a few weeks after reaching the centenarian milestone.

Phyllis is lovingly remembered by her daughter Kathy (Henry) Wiegman, daughter-in-law Bonnie Hunter, devoted niece Ellen Thompson, grandchildren Michael Lefurgey, Chris (Amanda) Lefurgey, Joseph Hunter, Mary Hunter, Jeffrey (Fa-Linn) Kubik, Dan Kubik, Phyllis (Bill) Bonnelo, Katie (Ewen) Cuthiell, Jon Wiegman, Aaron Wiegman, Renee Wiegman (Jeet Jermana), seven great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews and many friends in the Ensign-Brant, Milo, Vulcan and Seasons-High River communities. Phyllis lost her husband Jack Hunter, son Ron Hunter, 2 daughters and their husbands Jan and Dave Lefurgey, Wendy and Jack Kubik, nephew Ken Prentice, 3 siblings and their spouses Jim and Brenda Prentice, Helen and Haldor Thompson, Bob and Betty Prentice and many relatives and friends.

Phyllis grew up east of Milo on her parents' farm, attended the one-room Liberty School, worked for room and board to attend high school in Milo, and then earned a teaching certificate from Normal School in Calgary. When teaching for 2 years at East Majorville School, Phyllis met Jack. Early in their 43 year marriage, they settled to farm at Ensign and rear their family. Phyllis substitute taught to supplement the farm income and enjoyed community involvement. In the early eighties, they moved to Vulcan. With the purpose of making new friends in her new community, Phyllis became an Avon lady and a town librarian in addition to sub-teaching.

Widowed for 35 years, Phyllis was sustained by her faith in Jesus Christ and supported within her church family at Bethel Lutheran and close community friends. A life-long learner, Phyllis took up the computer at age 80. Described by her grands as smart about life, and petite but mighty, Phyllis valued her independence. With gentle acceptance, Phyllis was a good listener, and welcomed those who were new or hurting. Families Matter Calgary was dear to her heart.

A family memorial is delayed due to Covid. Phyllis will be laid to rest with her husband Jack at the Vulcan Cemetery.

Caring for the family is Lyle Reeves Funerals of High River (Craig Snodgrass) 403.652.4242.

“ We are remembering Phyllis with much fondness. Phyllis & Jack contributed to what was a very active Brant/Ensign community back in the day. Rod remembers Jack driving him to school when your Dad was a bus driver and we always enjoyed running into Phyllis in town and having a quick visit, always interested and concerned in how others were doing. Missed seeing her around Vulcan when she moved to High River. What a lovely long life she lived and we hope your many memories will comfort you now. Kathy, please know your folks are remembered well! Take care.

“ We just heard of your Mom's passing. We both have many fond memories of her. She was always ready for a visit whenever we saw her, she attended many functions that we catered during our catering years. She will be remembered with love and fondness by all that were fortunate to know her.

“ Phyllis was a shining light. She was always full of joy and determination. I had the privilege of getting to know her at Seasons. She would recommend the latest book she had read and i would cheer her on as she went for her walks. She will be missed, but will live on in my heart. Sincere Sympathy to her family.

“ My sympathy to Kathy and family, and Bonnie and family. Phyllis always had a smile and was so interested in what was going on in her friends families. Have known her for many years, and often reminisce about trips with our families with the riding club to the Kananaskis country with Jack as trail boss. Such fun years! May she Rest In Peace. ”

“ On behalf of Marjorie and Janet Stephen, and Sylvia Hunter, it was such a pleasure spending time with Phyllis at Seasons. We appreciated her kindness, sense of humour and interest in all that life brought her way. Janet and Sylvia will miss Phyllis’ Facebook posts. May the immense hole in your heart be overflowing with loving memories of such a wonderful lady.

We were saddened to learn of Phyllis's passing. So many cherished memories of Phyllis. We were near neighbors for over 30 years. She will be long remembered for her smile, laughter and caring ways. Yes, our dear "Avon Lady" Her home was a good meeting place for so many tea parties, Birthday Parties, Avon Christmas Get togethers etc. With our Deepest Sympathy to All of her Dear Family and Friends. She as well as her Family have been through so much in the last few years. Yet she would still carry on in her own dear way. She will be missed by so many people she touched in her lifetime. With Hugs, Prayers, and Our Deepest Sympathy. Sincerely Dick & Brenda Schuler and DiAnne (nee Schuler) & Jon Speer <3 <3
