“ *Lorraine, Rod, Dean, Florence, Lyle and families,
We had planned to attend the memorial today but the storm kept us at home. Please accept our condolences. Although we have not kept up with any of you, we have many happy memories and were looking forward to seeing you. I remember Ralph as being a quiet person who "danced to his own drummer". I know you will miss him.
Love, Ina and Wayne Sandy, Didsbury*

“ Dear Members of Ralph's Family,
I did not know Ralph well, but I know that his Aunt Florence thoroughly enjoyed his visits. The few times I met Ralph, I remember him as soft spoken, and a very gentle soul. He seemed to enjoy people, but he also enjoyed his solitude. I know that he was proud of, and dearly loved his son. It is always difficult to lose a family member, but especially someone we expect we will have many more years to enjoy. My sincerest sympathies go out to all the "Smith Kids", and to Ralph's son. May happy memories of times enjoyed together soon replace your shock, sorrow and sadness. It is my wish for those memories to ease your pain as you support one another. May knowing that others care help to comfort you at this time.

Sincerely,
Patty Atkinson
