“ I only got to meet Bert in the latter years. She always had a smile and made me feel special like I'm sure she did it with everyone that she met. I love to watch Fred and Birdy and the love they had for each other. I remember one time that I thought was so sweet when we were at Dairy Queen and she was not able or up to going inside so Fred went in and got her and him an ice cream cone. I thought what a perfect date and she was just beaming I love the way they were for each other. Our condolences to the family and Fred Harvey and Patsy Lubeck
