“ My heartfelt condolences to all the Brown family. I picture Roy always with that big smile - something I’m sure he inherited from his mom and dad! He was amazingly talented with his carpentry skills. I remember the last time he gave us a tour of his beautiful home - the mountains looked so sharp and clear that day! I know he will be dearly missed. My thoughts continue to be with you all! Love, Lynda Brown

“ We are so sorry to hear of Roy’s passing. We remember being at dance recitals for our girls and Roy so proudly pointing out his daughters on the stage. You could see how excited he was to watch his beautiful girls. Of course we often curled against Roy in the meat spiels...always a fun game. Roy will be remembered for his kind heart and caring ways...I can see him walking across the dance floor just to genuinely ask “how are you”! Hugs to Roy’s family! 🕯️
