“ Russell was a good friend of mine that I am going to miss dearly. Especially our dinner dates and chats. Russ was the finest, most generous friend anyone could ask for, he was caring and fun. I'll never forget our adventure from Calgary to Minneapolis, he got us upgraded to first class and the rest is history- man that was fun, I always had a great time with Russ and I will cherish our memories.

“ This very difficult to write as it is so hard to believe that we won't talk or see Russ again. We had become very close over the years, Christmas 's that Russ spent with us were always somewhat of a gong show, so much laughing, drinking & eating to much , but then Boxing Day was no better :). all Russ's visits were special, he became one of the family, and the best part I think for the boys was to pick on Mama and think it was so funny ... not !

To all the Dougherty's, we are so very sorry for loss of your, great brother, uncle & wonderful man.

Russ you will always be loved, remembered & missed, we hope your next adventure is filled with as much craziness, love and laughter as this one was .

Love, john & Sharon

“ RIP our good friend & groomsman at our wedding. Even though Russ lived in Houston, he always made a special point of letting the Charlton's know when he was back in HR. He prioritized his visits for his niece's & nephew's & we all know how much he loved them all & his boxing day trips shopping. Good times in High School when Terry lived at the Dougherty house while we were dating & so many good memories that we will cherish. Another one gone to soon sure does give the rest of us a reality check. Until we meet again. Terry & Diane

“ To the Dougherty family,

I have very fond memories of Russell growing up, he was always very kind to us kids, and a wonderful friend to our family. I had a doll growing up that I named Russell because I thought it looked just like him, he had a little curl in his hair and a blue bathrobe.

Unfortunately he was in my basement with all my childhood keepsakes and lost him in the flood. My condolences to you all.

“ Russell's friendship was solid gold. He was a giver , and spoke his mind on all he commented on. To read his name in this column is surreal . I can only think of him as having gone on to be our guardian angel now . Thank you for your friendship . To all the family - he lives on in each of you , brother Russ, uncle Russ - confident Russ - friend Russ. With sadness we'll celebrate the way he'd want us too . Karen Crawford

Condolences to the Dougherty family. There are many memories through the dozen years of school but especially football in the park after school. Russ was always a "fun guy" and I know he will be missed by many. Another friend gone too soon.
