“ When I first met Scott he was a red headed, freckled wee boy on a visit to his Granny Wilson in Scotland. He came to Aunt Mary and Uncle Eric's house and I did his reading practice with him. I remember him trying to convince me that potato and tomato had to rhyme! 25 years later he was still trying to convince me when we met up in Alberta, and he introduced Eric and me to Ty and Brady who were clearly the light of his life.

Our hearts are heavy that he has been taken from us too soon and our love and prayers are with you all.
