All the pain and anguish came flooding back ,

you will never go away....

“ *In my mind you're in your 20's,
Fluttering about again, always on the go.
Thought we'd see your 100th,
You being so strong and all.
Death stole from me,
That mother of mine.
I recognize Death's trickery,
'Cause I thought I had more time.

“ Sharon - Have been thinking of you a lot lately. Keep picking up the phone to talk with you about things. I do talk with you and I know you are listening. I chuckle at the road trips we had and talks we had about our lives. You are missed . Rest in Peace my friend.

“ I had the great pleasure of knowing Sharon for only a short period of time, a little over 2 years. In those two years I was always impressed with Sharon's zest for life, kindness and willingness to volunteer for a cause.

We worked together on many volunteer activities and I will miss her positive, hardworking and fun attitude.

Our prayers and thoughts are with Sharon's family and friends at this time.

Sincerely Art and Patty Smith
