

Mrs. Sheila Ann Bouck-Mcleod

July 28, 1925 - October 9, 2023

Mrs. Sheila Bouck-Mcleod passed away at the High River Hospital on October 9, 2023 at the age of 98 years. Sheila is survived by her daughters Adrienne Forbes Brown, Elizabeth Jane McNeill, (Drew), Sarah Louise Baskerville (Barrie), and Charlotte Ann Bouck (Jeremy); son Andrew Graham Bouck; grandchildren Lauren Anne Kirkman (Michael), Curtis Andrew McNeill, Alyshia Grace Bouck Hobday (William), Julia Marissa Brown, and Claire Anne Baskerville (Brandon); as well as 3 great grandchildren, whom she adored. She was predeceased by her infant brother, David Maguire, her parents Lawrence and Dorothy Maguire, and her late husband Kenneth McLeod.

Sheila was born in Peterborough, Ontario where she met and married George Frederick Bouck. She raised her family in Oakville, Ontario before moving to Jasper, Alberta in 1973. In 1975, mom found her true love, the ocean, and moved to the west coast. Mom spent many years on Vancouver Island before returning to High River, to be closer to family. Mom lived a very full life, made many friends and later in life, was a breath of fresh air for the staff in the many lodges she lived in. Mom suffered a stroke in 2020 that complicated her communication, but she still managed to share her ideas and thoughts with those she cared about. She loved art, music, dogs, knitting, good food, milkshakes and her family. Her spunk, dry wit and intelligence will be missed by many.

A Celebration of Life will be held Saturday, October 21, 2023 at 11:00 am at the Mucky Duck Pub in High River, Alberta (1103 - 18 St SE) for family and close friends.

Memorial Donations can be made to Heaven Can Wait, Animal Rescue Foundation <https://donate.heavencanwait.ca>, Box 6131 Station Main, High River AB T1V 1P7.

Caring for the family is Lyle Reeves Funerals of High River (Craig Snodgrass) 403.652.4242.

“ My deepest condolences to Sarah, Charlotte, Andy, Liz, Adrian and all of the family.

Your mom was a true example of how to live life to the fullest.

Through all of life's trials and tribulations, your mom achieved the very best leaving the past behind, and always looking forward to the future.

I will always remember her style, beauty, and needless to say her sharp wit...she never missed an opportunity and was always fun to be around.

Your mom will live forever, in you, your hearts and your memories.

Rest in peace dear Mrs Bouck. xox
