In 1945 the Wallis family moved from the farm to Glenboro, Manitoba. Sheila attended school in Glenboro and then moved to Wawanesa, Manitoba to work for the Wawanesa Mutual Insurance Company. There she met Gordon Sorensen and they were married in 1955. They had four children and remained in Wawanesa until the family moved to Regina, Saskatchewan in 1972. Gordon and Sheila made a final move west and retired to High River, Alberta in 1994.

Sheila's favourite times were the summers spent with the family at the cottage at Killarney Lake, Manitoba and every Christmas. She loved indulging her children, grandchildren and great-grandchild and gathering the family for games, cards and endless food. Sheila and Gordon also enjoyed the many winters spent in Arizona.
