

Mr. Timothy Thomas McIsaac

October 7, 1942 - August 30, 2016

Tim McIsaac of Calgary, born in Toronto, Ontario on October 7, 1942, passed away peacefully in Calgary, Alberta on August 30, 2016. Tim was predeceased by his father, Verdun (Mac) and his mother, Lois. He is survived by his loving brothers, Randy, Dan (Carolyn) and sister, Bonnie Grant (Bruce) and by his ex-wife, Valerie Winch and her two children, Doug and Tammy. He is also survived by a numerous nieces, nephews and grandchildren. We would also like to mention his good friend, Brenda Greenwood who was invaluable to him with the help and support she gave during his illness.

Tim was always a happy person and remained so until the end. He will be missed by all that knew him.

There will be no service as were his wishes. Please feel free to post a treasured memory of Tim by sharing a personal message or story on the "Tribute Wall" of this website.

“ I'm so happy to have spent the time with you that I did before you left us. Our visits were fun and happy in spite of the suffering you were experiencing. You loved life and that showed right to the very end. You have a huge place in my heart and I miss you so much!
