“ *It is difficult to use words that express the loss that you are currently experiencing with the loss of your husband, father and grandfather. Tom was a true cowboy- he loved horses, he worked with cattle and could build a damn good fence. He was a true gentleman with western hospitality running through his veins. It is a certainty that cowboy heaven is a richer place now than it was a few days ago. Our deepest sympathy is extended to all of you at this time.

“ I loved chatting with Tom. Being one of the older cousins, he was always able to tell me stories about our family that I didn't know or remember. Some of them were quite humorous. I knew how much he loved his family by the way he talked about them. I am saddened by his death, but I know that he will be reunited with Aunty Marguerite, Dixie and Shannon.

“ On behalf of the AHSRA we would like to send our deepest sympathy to the Crowe Family. Tom was an AHSRA board member and director for many years and his love of kids and rodeo was evident in all he did for so many. He was always there to lend a hand, help where he could and offer kind words of encouragement or advice. Tom had a soft spoken way about him, but had just a special way of sharing his cowboy knowledge with us all. Heaven gained a real special cowboy with Tom. RIP Tom, you will be missed by so many.
