“ I was so shocked and saddened when i heard about the passing of my oldest friend. It is still difficult for me to comprehend and I am struggling to find the words express my condolences. Some of my oldest and most cherished memories come from us goofing around as kids. I can't begin to imagine what you are going through and I just want you to know that his friendship truly was a very special part of my childhood. You have my deepest, deepest condolences.

“ I have started this post so many times, my words seem completely inadequate.

Candi I cannot even say how incredibly sorry I am to hear this news. Find strength in the amazing friends and family that have surrounded you during this difficult time, find peace in the knowledge that your beautiful boy has touched so many lives in such a memorable way. Live with those memories cherished in your heart, and know that he will always be remembered by those that were lucky enough to to know him.

Sending you so much love, prayers and strength to get you through the days ahead.

Tre was a very skilled hockey player and a pleasure to coach. Tre was well liked by all his teammates and very much a team player. This picture was taken just before a Bantam playoff game and all the players had fake moustaches. Great times!
