“ Mass somehow became more enjoyable when Bill and Dianne joyed our parish. They decided to sit in the pew behind us, and for all the years Dianne was with us, mass could be a riot at times. Both Bill and Dianne has a great sense of humour, making life so enjoyable for those us who could be part of it. And when Bill decided to sit near the front of the church, he always had a hand out when I passed on the way to communion. Will miss them both. They are smiling in Heaven, together again.

“ Bill was one of the nicest people I knew in my life. He always loved all of my jokes so that made him a genius in my mind. He was always very kind to me and its especially memorable because he was so kind to me in my youth. I can still hear the sound of him laughing in my head. I never did get into Spa Lady Bill. Go with god and enjoy your time in heaven!
